

I listen exclusively to XM. The local stations are more concerned about advertising and simulcasting shows from somewhere outside our market. With XM I receive the news and music that I want. Please don't let the big broadcasters determine what I listen to. If I wanted their service, I would listen to them. Thank you for considering my viewpoint.

Steve King